PREFACE.

The late John W. Kline was one of the first dealers in Postage Stamps in America; and the stamps embraced in this sale constitute his stock. We have examined every stamp, and, being collectors for the past twenty-eight years, we have endeavored to so arrange them as to give both the collector and dealer opportunities to purchase to advantage. Damaged stamps have been rigidly excluded from lots, and where admitted have been carefully noted in the Catalogue. We therefore believe that purchasers living at a distance will find a degree of satisfaction in their acquisitions from the care we have exercised. When this stock was placed in our hands it had been grievously mixed up—torn by inexperienced hands from old albums, etc., until it was in a perfect chaos. To make it saleable we have worked on it off and on for about two years; handling, as we said above, every stamp, no matter of what character. To give one instance of what this care produced, we can say that the 90c 1868 was discovered securely gummed between two most common stamps, only a very small corner protruding, and that not sufficient to identify the stamp. The seeker after watermarks, sizes of perforation, etc., will no doubt make “finds” among the large lots, for it became an absolute impossibility to devote time enough to detect them.

Dealers will find that the greater portion of the stock is free from old paper on the backs, and are, in their present condition, ready to be put into stock.

We believe every stamp to be genuine and as described; but not wishing to be a party to any deception, should our judgment be at error, we will allow twenty days after sale in which any counterfeit may be returned, and for which the price paid will be at once refunded. This will not apply to the conditions of the stamps, as after they leave the auction room our liability in this respect will cease. We firmly believe the condition of the stamps as stated by us to be true and correct, but they are sold as they are as to preservation.

The sale is made by order of Court and the Executor, and is absolute and free from any limits or reservations whatsoever.

It should be borne in mind by intending purchasers that this stock has received but few additions in the past twenty years, and therefore old issues predominate in the "Collections" and "Remainders."

Our plan of arrangement has been to first select any very rare stamp worth two dollars and over and make a separate lot of it, or, in conjunction with others, make a lot; then to select the finest specimens of each stamp in the country under arrangement, and make up a card of "The Collection," placing all the rest in "The Remainder of the Stock." From every such examination the damaged stamps were rejected and form one large lot by themselves—"The Hospital," at the end of the Catalogue.

The catalogue referred to is the Standard Postage Stamp Catalogue, 1896.

The stamps are attached to sheets of paper by hinges, and can be thus easily removed.

Catalogues priced in ink will be supplied after the sale for 50 cents in advance.

Hoping this our first effort at cataloguing stamps will meet with the same degree of satisfaction to Philatelists that our catalogues of coins do the Numismatists, we remain,

Very respectfully,

S. H. & H. CHAPMAN.
